Link: <https://listings.mapquest.com/pl/mapquest-claims/preview.html>

10: Foursquare

Link: <http://business.foursquare.com/claim>

The image shows the Foursquare Business claim page. The header includes "FOURSQUARE for Business" and navigation links for "Overview", "Your Listing", "Promote", "Discover", and "Login". The main message reads: "Your business is probably already on Foursquare. Search for it now." Below this is a search form with two input fields: "Business Name" and "City, State/Country" (with a location pin icon). A blue "Search" button is to the right. At the bottom, there is a link: "Ready to claim your listing? Get started now." and a downward-pointing chevron.
